Mr. John W. Hanes
570 Lexington Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear Johnnie:

During my absence from the office you wrote me on March 1st in regard to a lawyer who might be interested in working in this Agency. A letter was written to you on March 22nd by the Personnel Division which I should like to supplement with the suggestion that the lawyer in question, either before or after he has been interviewed by our personnel man in New York, may wish to get in direct touch with me. I can be reached at [REDACTED]

My reason for suggesting that he telephone or call on me is that he seems to have very special qualifications and I might be in a better position to judge where he might be most useful to this Agency.

With best personal regards and with hope that before long I shall be working again with you in the bank or elsewhere.

Very sincerely,

WILLIAM H. JACKSON
